Publish of Spain natural stones websites in Spanish

Date: 17-12-2009

We are pleased to inform you that the natural stone websites that belong to the Spainaturalstones.com online network are available online in Spanish language. After being published in English two months ago, it was not the time to publish the websites in Spanish.

This will increase the visibility of the websites, but more importantly, it will reach out to a wider audience of Spanish speaking visitors both in Spain and in North and South America, where the Spanish language is more commonly spoken.

Spain natural stones online network

Date: 11-11-2009

We are pleased to introduce you the newest online informative project about Spanish natural stones: the Spain natural stone network. The network is composed by a diversity of specific websites dedicated exclusively to the most relevant Spanish natural stones, which includes marbles, granites and limestones. All these websites are under the umbrella of Spainaturalstones.com.

about Spanish natural stones.

At present, there are 11 websites online. We are currently working on others which will be launched online on January 2010. All the websites which will be launched in January 2010 they will also be available in Spanish. About Spainaturalstones.com we have in English, but it will also be in Spanish during the first quarter of 2010.
